

Two identical mass-spring systems are displaced different amounts from equilibrium and then released at different times. Which of the following is true for both systems?

- A. The frequencies and the periods are the same.
- B. The amplitudes and the frequencies are the same.
- C. The phase constants and the amplitude are the same.
- D. The periods and the phase constants are the same.